CASE NO. 2:20-CR-0004-TLN

STIPULATION REGARDING EXCLUDABLE TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY TRIAL ACT; FINDINGS AND ORDER

DATE: February 18, 2021
TIME: 9:30 a.m.
COURT: Hon. Troy L. Nunley

17 By previous order, this matter was set for status on February 18, 2021. By this stipulation and 18 proposed order, the parties respectfully request that the Court continue the status conference until March 19 18, 2021. To the extent it is needed, this stipulation supplements the basis for exclusion of time under 20 the Court's General Orders addressing public health concerns, and requests that the Court also exclude
21 time between February 18, 2021, and March 18, 2021, under Local Code T4, for the reasons set forth 22 below.

23 On April 17, 2020, this Court issued General Order 617, which suspends all jury trials in the 24 Eastern District of California scheduled to commence before June 15, 2020, and allows district judges to 25 continue all criminal matters to a date after June 1. This and previous General Orders were entered to 26 address public health concerns related to COVID-19.

27 Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has 28 emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act's end-of-justice provision "counteract[s] substantive openendedness with procedural strictness,” “demand[ing] on-the-record findings” in a particular case. Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally or in writing”).

Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, and 617 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767-68; see also United States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.

In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).<sup>1</sup> If continued, this Court should designate a new date for the status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

STIPULATION

1. By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the status conference until March 18, 2021, and to exclude time between February 18, 2021, and March 18, 2021, under the Court’s General Orders and Local Code T4.

2. The parties agree and stipulate, and request that the Court find the following:

a) The government has produced the discovery associated with this case which includes, among other things, a considerable number of investigative reports, video surveillance, audio recordings, and laboratory reports. The government produced this discovery via a file sharing cloud platform, to which defense counsel has access.

b) Counsel for defendant believes she will need some time to go through the discovery. Counsel will also need additional time to consult with her client, to review the current charges, to conduct investigation and research related to the charges, to review discovery for this matter, to discuss potential resolutions with her client, to prepare pretrial motions, and to otherwise prepare for trial.

c) Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

d) The government does not object to the continuance.

e) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

f) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161, et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of February 18, 2021 to March 18, 2021, inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to the Court’s General Orders, and pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv) [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendants’ request on the basis of the Court’s finding that the ends of justice

1 served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy
2 trial.

3 3. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 4 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
5 must commence.

6 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
